Living Justly: Christ-like living in a broken world - Week 1

Heather Packett

Introduction

Sometimes our faith and beliefs can remain private and personal but if our faith is actually who and what we are, not simply an unrelated set of beliefs and principles, it must have expression in how we live. It must cause us to stand against standards and behaviours that are not in line with God.

Bible Passage

Micah 6:8

Discussion

1. How would you answer the question, 'What does God require of you?'
2. In our day to day lives do we show the character of God by how we live?
3. If justice will not just happen, what does it mean for you to do justice?
4. When you love kindness you will champion it, not just do it. Do you agree with this?
5. What does it look like for you to walk humbly with your God, having the attitude of being prompt-able / deliberately obedient?

Respond

In many ways living justly is a huge challenge to us as individuals and as a church. What are you willing to do this week to represent the character of Jesus to all that you come in contact with?
